I have read the above 10 Commandments and I understand that they are put in place to ensure the health of the community that will be established. Any action on my part that may injure the relationships that are formed will need to be mended through some other action. Depending upon the severity of the injury, that action may be a phone call to my Parent(s)/Legal Guardian and being sent home immediately.

I have read the above 10 Commandments and I understand that they are put in place to ensure the health of the community that will be established. If severe enough damage is done to the community, I understand that my child can be sent home from camp or asked not to participate in upcoming events pending a personal meeting with the Youth Minister and a Pastor. Otherwise, all actions that cause injury to the group will be handled by the sponsors at the event. I agree to cover all costs for their early return should this be required.
